

I live in the mountains and cannot get decent radio reception on AM or FM. I travel for my work and need to know what is going on around me. I also pay for this satellite radio and expect that XM will provide additional services as they become available. They have done this and I resent anyone interfering with this. It is a free market economy and I should be allowed to buy the services available if I choose. Thank you.